

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

1. Preface

Clean Max has an established Code of Ethics (the Code) which sets out the standards of conduct expected in the management of its business. All employees are expected to carry out their duties in a manner that is consistent with the Code. If employees become aware of circumstances which are not in compliance with the Code then they should communicate their suspicions using the “whistle blowing” mechanism explained below. There is a provision under the Code requiring employees to report violations, which states:

Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of The Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers), 2014 provide to establish a mechanism called “Vigil Mechanism (Whistle Blower Policy)” for directors and employees to report concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company’s Code of Conduct or Code of Ethics.

Accordingly, this Whistle Blower Policy (“the Policy”) has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for stakeholders, employees of the Company and their representative bodies to approach Designated Person of the Company.

2. Definitions

The definitions of some of the key terms used in this Policy are given below. Capitalised terms not defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to them under the Code:

- a. “Employee” means every employee of the Company (whether working in India or abroad), including the Directors in the employment of the Company.
- b. “Code” means the Cleanmax’s Code of Conduct.
- c. “Investigators” mean those persons authorised, appointed, consulted or approached by the Board of Directors of the Company and includes the auditors of the Company and the police.
- d. “Protected Disclosure” means any communication made in good faith that discloses or demonstrates information that may evidence unethical or improper activity.
- e. “Subject” means a person against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure has been made or evidence gathered during the course of an Investigation.
- f. “Whistle Blower” means an Employee/stakeholder making a Protected Disclosure under this Policy.

3. Scope

a. This mechanism is to provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees or stakeholders who shall have direct access to Designated Person in appropriate or exceptional cases. The director will also be entitled to make use of this mechanism concerning the matters relating to the Company. This mechanism would be hosted by the Company on its website viz. www.cleanmax.com and included in the Boards' report.

b. This mechanism is an extension of the Company's Code of Conduct. The Whistle Blower's role is that of a reporting party with reliable information. They are not required or expected to act as investigators or finders of facts, nor would they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case.

b. Whistle Blowers should not act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by Designated Person or the Investigators.

c. Protected Disclosure will be appropriately dealt with by Designated Person for that matter.

4. Eligibility

All Employees/stakeholders of the Company are eligible to make Protected Disclosures under the Policy. The Protected Disclosures may be in relation to matters concerning the Company or a Company.

5. Disqualifications

a. While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.

b. Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

c. Whistle Blowers, who make any Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide or malicious or Whistle Blowers who make 3 or more Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be frivolous, baseless or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Protected Disclosures under this Policy.

6. Procedure

- a. All Protected Disclosures concerning financial/accounting matters or otherwise should be addressed to Designated Person of the Company for investigation.
- b. If a protected disclosure is received by any executive of the Company other than the Designated Person, the same should be immediately forthwith forwarded to Designated Person for further appropriate action. Appropriate care must be taken to keep the identity of the Whistle Blower confidential.
- c. Protected Disclosures should preferably be reported in writing so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised and should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English, Hindi or in the regional language of the place of employment of the Whistle Blower.
- d. The Protected Disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter which shall bear the identity of the Whistle Blower. Designated Person, as the case may be shall detach the covering letter and forward only the Protected Disclosure to the Investigators for investigation.
- e. Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion, and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.
- f. For the purpose of providing protection to the Whistle Blower, the Whistle Blower should disclose his/her identity in the covering letter forwarding such Protected Disclosure.

7. Investigation

- a. All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be thoroughly investigated by Designated Person of the Company who will investigate / oversee the investigations under the authorization of the Designated Person.
- b. Designated Person may at his discretion, consider involving any Investigators for the purpose of investigation.
- c. The decision to conduct an investigation taken by Designated Person is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of the Whistle Blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.

d. The identity of a Subject and the Whistle Blower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.

e. Subjects will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.

f. Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with Designated Person or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.

g. Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Investigators and/or the Whistle Blower. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings. However, if the allegations against the subject are not sustainable, then the Company may see reason to reimburse such costs.

h. Subjects have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.

i. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report.

No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.

j. Subject as herein stated, Subjects have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.

k. The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure.

8. Protection

a. No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

b. A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Designated Person, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

c. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law.

d. Any other Employee/Stakeholder assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

9. Investigators

a. Investigators are required to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority and access rights from the Board of Directors when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.

b. Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. All Investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and as perceived. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior, and observance of legal and professional standards.

c. Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review by the Designated Person which establishes that:

i. the alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and

ii. the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or in cases where the allegation is not supported by specific information, it is felt that the concerned matter is worthy of management review. Provided that such investigation should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity or conduct.

10. Decision

If an investigation leads Designated Person to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, Designated Person shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as Designated Person may deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

11. Retention of documents

All Protected Disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of seven years.

12. Amendment

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees/stakeholders unless the same is notified to the Employees/stakeholders through website or in any other manner.
